

Brief Comparison Between 3 Bingo Networks

Probably the first thing you notice in this table is that the number of players a day at VF is significantly higher. You may think that this lowers your chances of winning but actually that's not the case. Read below to find the explanation and some further info.

Why choose VIRTUE FUSION over the competitors?

PLAYERS A DAY 30 200	PLAYERS A DAY 60 000	PLAYERS A DAY 11 400
SITES IN THE NETWORK 56	SITES IN THE NETWORK 97	SITES IN THE NETWORK 20

The more players buy tickets for a certain game, the higher the jackpot is, ergo the more players there are in a network the bigger the jackpots are. Plus, there are as many as 97 VF bingo sites compared to 56 in Cozy Games and only 20 in 15 Network. This means that the players are distributed between those 97 sites and when you play you will not be competing against more players than in the other networks.

As for the branded games, 15 Network claim to have some, but we were unable to find any. Cozy games only say that they will sooner or later develop branded games together with Fremantle Media but again it's unclear when this ground-shaking event will take place. The only operator that can actually boast unique as well as site-specific games is Virtue Fusion. Those include: DOND bingo, Lucky Numbers bingo and Joker Jackpot.

The last criteria in the table speaks for itself – only VF have a native app. This means that they have invested the time and effort (and money) to develop apps compatible with Android and iOS whereas the mobile bingo offered by the other providers (if any) is available only on iPads, rarely on Android tablets and uses HTML5. Simply put, VF will let you download an app to play on your mobile device while the other providers will ask you to search in your browser for their mobile site every time.

Our personal favourite from the VF network, Mecca, offers many guaranteed jackpots, tickets from 5 pence, the X Factor bingo, Britain's Got Talent Bingo, the exclusive Mecca rooms Cashline and Snakes and Ladders. Also, not only they have 3 bingo apps (one of which for free play), but they have special mobile promotions section.
